The '84 Chief

Keokuk Senior High School
Keokuk, Iowa
Volume 81

Landmarks — the dictionary defines them as "marks for designating the boundaries of land ... conspicuous objects on land that mark a locality ... events or developments that mark turning points." That's why, as you look throughout this yearbook, you'll see pictures of familiar Keokuk landmarks, places that help you get your bearings, that help you put into context the events of this school year. As you see each one, think of all the landmarks in your own life this year.

Landmarks — KHS has them, whether it is observing Mr. Anderson's passing on to graduate school or seeing a toga-garbed Tani Young as she nears the end of her high school career or watching the senior wrestlers surround the Chief symbol which has been such a part of their lives. Landmarks may be studious seniors or Ray Williams receiving an award from Mr. Figge or helping out the Bloodmobile or watching Eric Shuman perform as the Chief. The landmarks are all about you if you will but take the time to notice them, savor them, and remember them.

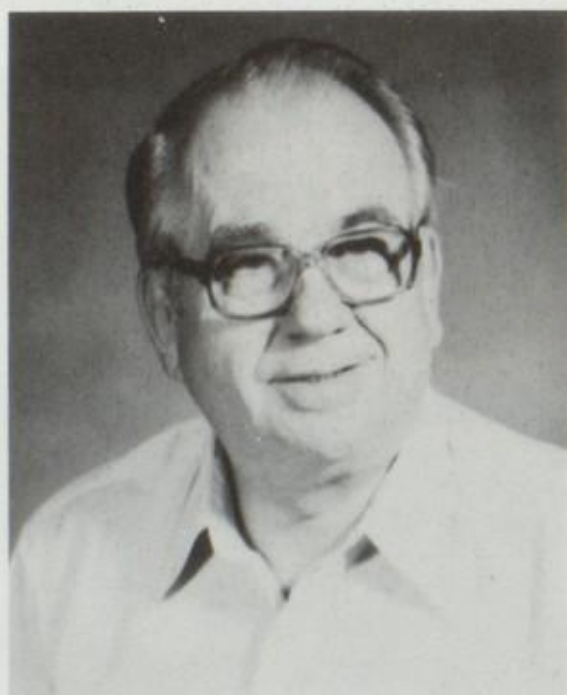

Landmarks — that's what this year's '84 Chief takes a look at — moments and places in your life when something important, something unforgettable, something poignant, happened to you.

Dedication

Richard Jones

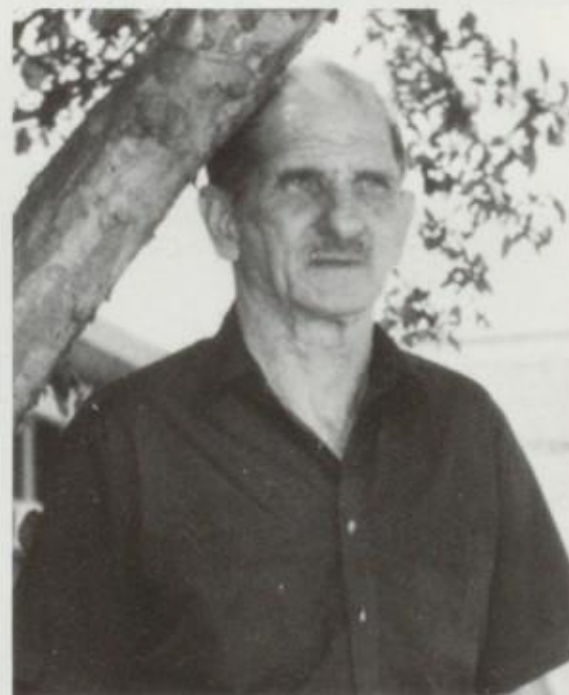

The '84 Chief dedicates this year's yearbook to two retiring members of the KHS staff.

Richard Jones retires this year after having been a member of the faculty for thirty-five years.

As he himself has observed, for the last few years he has been teaching driver education to the children of students he had when he first came to Keokuk.

Herb Stice also retires this year from the custodial department.

His face has been a familiar sight in the hallways of KHS. The last two years he has been the head custodian, doing a fine job of keeping the building and grounds in tiptop shape.

Herb Stice

The '84 Chief is a publication of the Keokuk Senior High School Comment staff.

graphy of Keokuk. A special thank you goes to Tani Young who worked hard to get us the necessary prints so that the yearbook could be completed on time. Special thanks are also given to Wes and Marilyn Pohorsky for the use of their prom pictures. Finally a word of appreciation to Melanie Laehn for her efforts in getting the yearbook done.

One of the landmark organizations at KHS is the Little Feathers, who had a very successful year. They attended the Superstar Drill Team Camp on the Iowa State University campus and brought home 72 blue ribbons, and Michele Prunty was selected as a Superstar Girl. The team held their own camp at the Ursa Retreat and prepared for the football season.

In addition to performing at football, wrestling, and boys' and girls' basketball games, the Feathers joined the band for parades and entertained at pep assemblies with comedy routines. The girls sponsored their city-wide Little Feather Day, appeared at two fashion shows at the mall, and sponsored a Valentine Day Dance.

The highlight of the year was in December when the Feathers captured second place in the State at the Iowa State Drill Team Competition. Competing against the finest drill/dance groups in the state, the group finished second in the state, the highest a Keokuk group has ever finished. Claire Smick and Michele Prunty competed for the title of Miss Drill Team with Michele being named as one of the top ten finalists. Prunty, Smick, and Aimee Trott were selected to represent Keokuk in the All Iowa Drill Team.

As Mrs. Pohorsky sums it up, "A most successful and fun year and the best group of Little Feathers I have had in the fourteen years I've been associated with the group. The 8 seniors will be missed."

Instrumental Music

On these two pages are pictures of both the marching band and the concert band and some candid pictures of individual members.

The 1983-84 year marked the end of Craig Bullis' association with both bands. During the last concert of the year, Lisa Wasilewski, on behalf of the band, presented Mr. Bullis with gifts in appreciation for what he has done for the bands over the years.

Smoke Signals

The Smoke Signals prepares the senior edition of the newspaper.

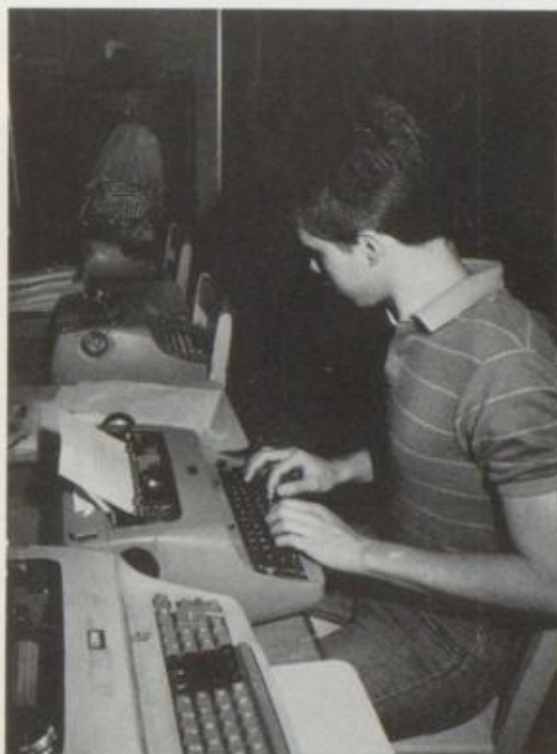

Julie McClain, Julie Patton, Debbie Partridge, and Claire Smick were part of the team effort.

Other staff members included John Medley, Brian Scott, and Jeff Chaloupek.

Lori Peterson and Kathy Smith check out the final results.

Sherri Marshal and Grant Smith are busy typing some last-minute copy.

Jeff Chaloupek studies Mr. Artman, the newspaper sponsor while Debbie Partridge, Julie McClain, and Julie Patton ham it up.

Spanish Club

Spanish Club - Row One: J. Boatman, J. Karre, L. Mann, T. White, P. Norris, J. Pezley; Row Two: C. Coffield, T. Nelson, S. Marshall, S. Sorenson, B. Quintana, M. Laehn, R. Griffin, S. Shea

Begona Quintana, Debi Carrell, and Cathy Rosencrans participated in the festivities at the Spanish dinner at Amy Fritzjunker's home.

Also present at the Spanish dinner were Jamie Roberts, Jamie Rule, Todd Gregory, and Chris Norris.

Charley's Aunt

The annual fall production of the Keokuk Drama Club was Charley's Aunt, presented on November 11 and 12. Written by Brandon Thomas, the play was a light-hearted comedy centering on Charley's aunt, an aunt bearing a suspiciously strong resemblance to a man rather than a woman. Under the direction of Rick Anderson, the play displayed the talents of many Keokuk Senior High students, both on stage and behind the scenes.

Row One: T. Beckman, J. Medley; Row Two: J. Ripley, M. Guy, K. Harrison, M. Laehn, D. Rendina, P. Kearns, D. Skow, S. Chung, R. Bode, M. Prunty, H. Gallanoy, C. Carroll, C. Smick, D. Jensen; Row Three: M. Hendricks, M. Concannon, A. Hequembourg, A. Vandersall, A. Trott, T. Bode, M. Baugher, M. Nichols; Row Four: T. Lynch, J. Smick, J. Barrera, C. Skinner, M. Logsdon, R. Coker, L. Odell, G. Smith, K. Froeling, A. Spence, K. Keller, D. Carrell, D. Hinmon, T. Harrison, D. Skow, J. Jenkins; Row Five: S. Vandersall, A. Handyside

During the summer, school activities are pretty well closed down, but one event is the annual summer musical. This landmark event for 1983 was the production of South Pacific, an effort that required the help of numerous people.

Faculty assistance was provided by Rick Anderson, director; Dan Proctor, music director; and Bob Buckert, set construction.

With the intense summer heat, it was a relief to let one's imagination take him away to the balmy South Seas and enjoy an excellent performance.

Nellie Forbush (Anne Vandersall) pays Luther Billis (Aaron Hequembourg) an off-hand compliment: "Oh! You do beautiful work, Luther. You've even done the pleats in my shorts."

Ten Little Indians

Cast - Row One: D. Partridge, C. Smick, D. Skow; Row Two: G. Smith, M. Baugher, J. Wiggins, D. Skow, J. Smick, M. Concannon, D. Aubuchon, T. Beckman

"The murderer is one of us . . ." "Which of us?"

The Rainbow Box

A landmark event for the local elementary schools is the annual Children's Theater. This year's production, performed during the week of May 7-11, was a play entitled The Rainbow Box by Brian Way and directed by Karen Parker. The cast of four included Lisa Mann, Sue Shea, Tom Anderson, and Monty Hendricks. David Skow and Tracy Dye added their contribution as participation helpers.

Class Day Highlights

Vivian Meyer presented both Jeff Chaloupek and Brack Collier with the American Citizenship Award.

Craig Bullis recognized several senior band members with Senior Band Member Recognition Awards, including Karen Hamelton (top), Darren Dietrich (middle), and Peggy Kreie (bottom).

Top: Nancy Ketterer also received a Senior Band Member Recognition Award. Middle: Larry Walker presented Don Hevel with his Southeast Seven All Conference Team Award. Bottom: Gordon Peters awarded Eric Larson with the Gary Harrison Memorial Award.

Top: Cindy Schulz received the Outstanding Senior Home Economics Student Award from Bonnie Melvin. Middle: Claire Smick was the recipient of the Paula Ferguson Memorial Scholarship, presented by Rick Anderson. Bottom: Marilyn Pohorsky presented Meg Harshbarger with the Business and Professional Women's Scholarship.

Top: Tom Wemette presented Karen Hamelton with a Northwest Missouri State University Regents Scholarship. Middle: Fred Figge awarded Keokuk Elks Scholarships to Carolyn Tuttle and Jeff Chaloupek. Bottom: Claire Smick was the 1984 recipient of the Iowa Junior Academy of Science Award, presented by Jim Merritt.

Top: Dan Proctor presented Michelle Prunty with the National School Choral Award. Middle: David Skow received the Southeastern Community College Foundation Fine Arts Scholarship from James Bowles. Bottom: Brent Leggett received the Outstanding Industrial Arts Student Award from Tom Barnes.

Top: Wes Pohorsky gave the John Abell Memorial Camp Award to Steve Spees and Randy Boltz. Middle: John Medley received the American Legion Boys State Award from Ken Thompson. Bottom: The final portion of the Class Day ceremony was the reading of class awards by senior class officers Meg Harshbarger, Brenda Nelson, Lori Peterson, and Cindy Lindner.
